Karin Crump, certified as an Advanced Credentialed Mediator by the Texas Mediator Credentialing Association, joined the Lakeside Mediation team in 2006 after representing clients on both sides of the docket for more than a decade. Karin has represented corporations, insurance companies and individuals in a wide variety of litigation, including personal and premises liability, medical malpractice, construction defect, worker's compensation, toxic tort and family law. She was selected as the Outstanding Young Lawyer of Dallas and was named in D Magazine as one of the Best Lawyers in Dallas Under 40 before moving to Austin in 2003. Since 2005, she has been named as a Texas Super Lawyer--Rising Star in litigation and Alternate Dispute Resolution by Texas Monthly Magazine seven times.

A mediator for more than fifteen years, Karin has a record of successfully and amicably resolving even the most complex and seemingly difficult cases. She has successfully helped resolve hundreds of cases involving commercial and personal injury disputes, first and third party insurance claims, franchise and employment contracts and family law matters.

Karin is an approved mediator for the U.S. District Court--Western District of Texas. She is admitted to practice law in all Texas courts, as well as the Northern, Southern and Western Districts of Texas. Before becoming a full-time mediator, she tried lawsuits across the state. She is a graduate of St. Mary's University School of Law and the University of Texas at Austin. She has served in the American Inns of Court as a pupil of the William Sessions Inn of Court of San Antonio and an associate of the Patrick Higginbotham Inn of Dallas.

Karin is the past president of the Texas Young Lawyers Association and served on the State Bar of Texas Board of Directors, as a member of the Executive Committee of the State Bar of Texas, on the Texas Bar Journal Board of Editors, and as the Chair of the Supreme Court's Task Force to Expand Legal Service Delivery.
